Meeting called to order at 14:05 BST

Minutes:

- Approval of minutes from September 13th meeting.
 - Minutes of the previous meeting were approved.
 - Sxa asked if we considered using the EF OKD instance for the API backup service. George explained that Digital Ocean provides a k8s cluster, this is not available from EF.
 - The Heroku costs are minimal at this point and easier to use. This may be moved to GCP if we get sponsorship.
 - Clarification of what is running on each of these providers.
- Review of outstanding actions.
 - The action was reviewed, and marked as completed.
- Review of GitHub issues flagged for PMC agenda.
 - Support alpine images for aarch64 (adoptium/containers#158)
 - i. Builds for JDK21 are looking clean and passing tests as expected. Running on actual hardware in the CI system.
 - ii. Plan to review as a low priority platform release. Running slowly but acceptable.
 - iii. No plans to go back to earlier JDK versions.
 - iv. Seeing requests from Mac M1 users.
 - v. Once the JDK is built it would require a new container type to be published. This work is not currently described in an issue or scheduled.
- Temurin 21 GA source due: 19-Sept-2023
 - Release champion: gdams
 - Release checklist (adoptium/adoptium#248)
 - Release status (adoptium/adoptium#???)
 - TCK status and linking to EA build
 - Currently waiting for TCK material, which is currently awaiting a new arrangement between EF and Oracle.
 - Release pipelines running.

- Glitch with the EF signing service caused a hiccup, but has been restarted and apparently resolved. Andrew will add some more debug info to determine the problem and flag it to the EF.
 - Expectation is that AIX, ARM32, PLINUX, ZLINUX would be testable in this new TCK.
- Update on MacStadium Orka migration.
 - Plan is to use machines on a short contract while we migrate to Orka.
 - MacMinis are on a monthly contract now. The Orka cluster is being provisioned.
 - EF have signed the mac mini contract.
- RISC-V testing discussion feedback.
 - Feedback on discussion held with Rivos about the build and testing of Temurin on RISC-V and emulators.
- Update on GHSA-xrvg-mgj7-p5wh.
 - Update on the above was provided.
- AoB
 - Haroon is doing AQA triage and needs adding to AQAvit team to handle issues.
