- Handling historical data in the Adoptium Marketplace (Huawei)
  - Question arose as to whether removing a publisher from the market place would take away their historical information.
  - General thought is that we should not break any links that people may have been using in the past.
  - Opinion is that the current data (links to builds on publisher site) is kept in place and left to go stale, i.e. updating the publishers metadata is stopped.
  - The website has now been updated to remove the promotion of the Huawei builds. The API will serve up the legacy info and no more – unless Huawei rejoins the working group.
- On-boarding of Fujitsu engineers to the Temurin Compliance project
  - Vote underway to bring new engineers into the project.
  - In the near future all new members will be invited to a meeting to discuss the project and release actions.
- Any outstanding website issues

- Website code being upgraded to use node next.js <https://github.com/adoptium/adoptium.net-next> .
