  - Approved.
- Approval of the statement for the March 12th meeting.
- Approval of the statement for the March 19th meeting.
  - Approved.
- Review of outstanding actions.
  - None.
- Review of GitHub issues flagged for PMC agenda
  - Use www.jpackage.org "java-X-temurin" naming convention for Adoptium RPM files (installer#1128)
  - Review of standardising the name of the packages provided by Adoptium.
  - Virtual provides and symbolic links to retain compatibility, in JDK24 rpm distribution archives, with a view to backport.
  - Rules are in place that match the installation path. Not necessarily required to have java in the package name.
  - SE Linux requires the runtime is installed into a matched directory path, based on packaging guidelines.
  - ACTION: Scott to describe the technical overhead of separating the package file naming from the installation path management (installer#1128).
- JDK24 release status update
  - Windows aarch64 remains. Some AQAvit tests are hanging and require help with triaging. Maybe some configuration issues with the stress tests.
  - AIX will not be released due to a compliance failure caused by lack of upstream functionality.
  - Images and installers have progressed. Last of the checklist items are underway.
  - Scorecards updated.
- Update on GHSA-xrvg-mgj7-p5wh.
  - Non

- Notification of timezone change ahead of next PMC meeting.
  - Move to BST during the week.
- AoB
  - SkyTap status update
    i. SkyTap provision of POWER and AIX machines in compliance project. Kyndryl have acquired SkyTap and the sponsorship may not be continued. This can be raised with IBM as it is likely to impact them most.
    ii. OSUOSL may be an option to fill in for these platforms in the future, but with a delay in release target.
  - Temurin-compliance
    i. Work continues with the automation of the compliance work.
    ii. Good progress is being made with the use of Arctic. Sharing of information across the team continues.
  - GSoC submission period started this week ends
